Parking (PDF map included)

Finding parking in Indianapolis doesn't have to be difficult. Indy offers 73,000 spaces downtown. Downtown Indy's Parking Guide includes a detailed map of downtown parking with filters for everything from buses to motorcycles.

To reserve parking, optional, visit ParkWhiz or SpotHero to pre-pay for reserved parking in select lots.

ParkIndy provides intuitive technology to making parking easy via their pay boxes and parking app. For specialty parking,

HorseShoe Parking and Denison Parking offer parking in close proximity to Lucas Oil Stadium.

Cars, Buses, Ridesharing

IndyGo provides bus service with over 30 fixed routes from their downtown transportation hub. The new Red Line is Indy's first bus rapid transit line with electric buses, platform boarding, and high-frequency service along 13 miles stretching from Broad Ripple in the north the University of Indianapolis in the south. And the new 15.2 mile Purple Line connects the City of Indianapolis and the City of Lawrence, with service east-west through the historic Irvington neighborhood. Indy is a friendly city for both Uber and Lyft. Limousines, Premium Car Services, and Motorcoaches: Enjoy VIP transportation experiences through Advanced Limousines, Carey Indiana, EZ Transportation LLC, Free Enterprise, Indy Executive Limo, Lafayette Limo, Luxury Worldwide Transportation, Miller Transportation, Turner Coaches, or Reserve Car Services.

Biking

Away.com named Indianapolis one of the best cities to see from a bicycle, thanks to the city's flat landscape, innovative Indianapolis Cultural Trail, and abundance of bike paths. Some hotels offer guests complimentary bikes, or they are available at two convenient rental locations and through the Pacers Bikeshare Program. Pacers Bikeshare provides 50 stations and 525 bikes which are available with a 24-hour pass, monthly pass, or annual purchase. Their pay-as-you-go options make it easy for visitors to explore on two wheels. Visitors can also explore on two-wheels with bikes from Wheel Fun Rentals in White River State Park or Bicycle Garage Indy \(BGI\), located in historic City Market.

Walking

National journalists have proclaimed Indy one of the most walkable downtowns in the country. On foot, visitors can reach hundreds of restaurants and attractions from their hotel and meeting space. An expansive network of climate-controlled skywalks connecting 4,700 hotel rooms to the convention center, Lucas Oil Stadium, a four-story mall, and restaurants keep it walkable in all weather.

Other Options for Reaching the City

Amtrak and Greyhound both have hubs in the downtown area. Amtrak's trains offer upgraded experiences like preferred seating, private rooms, and dining options. Greyhound's affordable bus travel includes free onboard Wi-Fi, power outlets, and the ability to reserve your favorite seat when you book your ticket.

VISIT
Indy

#1 AIRPORT
IN NORTH AMERICA
AIRPORTS COUNCIL INTERNATIONAL

Transportation

INDIANAPOLIS INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

As the first terminal designed after 9/11, IND combines state-of-the-art security measures with smart, convenient design. The fastest Wi-Fi of any airport in the U.S., award-winning dining favorites, and beloved shopping options add to an unmatched traveler experience. Condé Nast Readers Choice Awards named IND “Best Airport in North America” and J.D. Power singled them out for Best Overall Passenger Experience.

AIRPORT TRANSIT

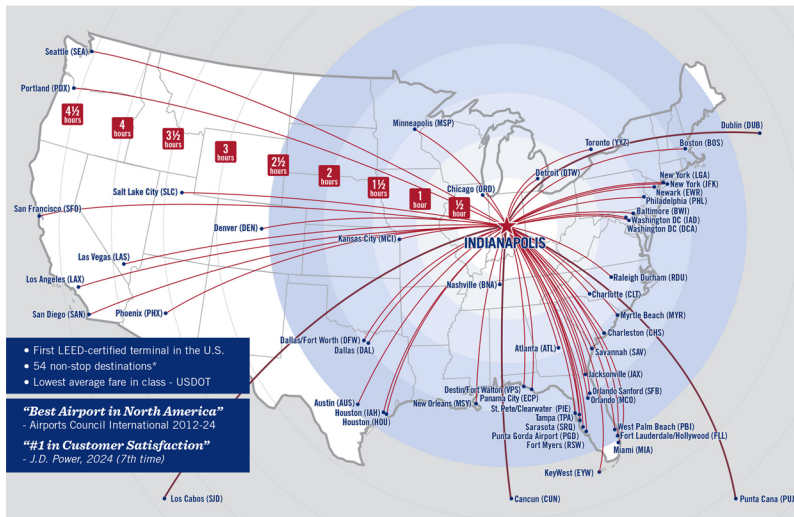

Positioned only 15 minutes from downtown, there are easy options for getting to and from IND.

TAXIS

Taxis are readily available at the airport. A typical fare from airport to downtown is $35, and select taxi companies offer a $5 flat rate fare for trips within downtown.

UBER & LYFT

Car service in addition to taxis is available through Uber and Lyft. Both app-based services connect visitors with resident drivers.

For more information, go to VisitIndy.com

GETTING AROUND INDY

The city's design is conducive to putting on shoes and walking, but for longer trips there are options to fit every type of traveler.

INDYGO BUS SYSTEM AND THE RED LINE

Bus routes operate around the city, including a fixed route to and from the airport every 15 minutes, for as little as $1.75 per ride. IndyGo's Transit Center is a hub for public transit in the city.

The Red Line is a 13-mile rapid transit line that connects Broad Ripple in the north to the University of Indianapolis in the south. It includes a stop at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, weaves through the heart of downtown's convention district, and reaches the popular Fountain Square cultural district. Frequent service and affordable rates make riding easy, and the all-electric bus fleet makes the Red Line an environmentally responsible choice.

DRIVING IS EASY

Known as the Crossroads of America, Indy is within a day's drive of more than half the nation's population.

BIKING & BIKE SHARE

Bicycle rentals are available at the Indy Bike Hub at City Market and Wheel Fun Rentals in White River State Park. Several hotels offer complimentary bicycles to guests.

Indiana Pacers Bike Share has 50 stations located on or near the Indianapolis Cultural Trail, and the 525 bikes are available for anyone to use.

RIDE THESE TRAILS

INDIANAPOLIS CULTURAL TRAIL

This internationally acclaimed 8-mile biking and walking trail connects the city's Cultural Districts.

THE MONON TRAIL

Indy's original greenway stretches 25 miles from downtown to Broad Ripple, Carmel, and Westfield.

SCOOTERS

Both Bird and Lime offer options for scooter rentals that are fun and convenient for short distances.

ACCESSIBILITY

Indy has been recognized by the National Organization on Disability as an Accessible America Competition winner and touted as a national model for a disability-friendly city.
